

Here and Now

Eric Paul Kelly

Jesus knew that as you enjoy the abundant life He has made possible for you to have; your life would become a beacon and a witness before all men of His saving power.

So, salvation is not all about the "hereafter," but is also for the "here and now" so that in you the world can see "here and now" that Jesus truly is the way, the truth, and the light.